Mr. SPEAKER.—I want to know in how many cases according to the Hon'ble Members the order has been relaxed ?

Sri C. M. ARUMUGHAM.—Five cases.

Sri H. K. VEERANNA GOWDH.—May I submit that Mr. Arumugham goes back to the year 1954 when there was no integration. If he puts a definite question, giving these details, I will answer. Now after integration, only one case in fovour of one Mr. Joshi.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Sri Arumugham will give all the cases and the Honourable Minister will examine them. In case there is need for holding over the question, I will hold it over. Let the Honourable Member furnish details from 1954 ;

Sri C. M. ARUMUGHAM.—Is it not a fact that the said order was relaxed in favour of Mr. Anantaraman ; again in favour of one Nagabushana Rao, also in favour of one Mr. Ramachandran ?

Sri H. K. VEERANNA GOWDH.—I have no information.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The question will be held over.

SHORT NOTICE QUESTION AND ANSWER.

WITHDRAWAL OF CLASSES III AND IV SERVANTS FROM THE PURVIEW OF THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION.

Q.—57. Sri V. SINIVASA SHETTY (Coondapur).—

Will the Government be pleased to state :—

(a) when did they decide to take away from the purview of the P.S.C. the recruitment of Classes III and IV servants in the State;

(b) when did they issue the Government Order;

(c) in between these two dates the number of applications that were called for and interviews conducted for these categories of posts by the P.S.C. ?

Sri V. SRINIVASA SHETTY.—Is it not a fact that on the date of the notification by the Government amending the Public Service Commission Consultation Regulation, 958, interviews were being conducted for a number of posts and if so, for what posts interviews have been held ?

† Sri B. D. JATTI.—According to my information, the interviews were carried on regarding the posts of Police Sub-Inspectors. They were not complete. In the meanwhile, the Public Service Commission received the order of Government. They stopped interviews from that date.

Sri V. SRINIVASA SHETTY.—Is it not a fact that interviews were conducted for the posts of Co-operative Inspectors also and if so, how many candidates had been interviewed by the time of the issue of the order ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—The information is not available. They could not complete the interviews and whatever candidates were interviewed, to that extent they completed. So it was incomplete.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Are the Government aware that with the taking away from the purview of the Public Service Commission the recruitment of class III servants, there is hardly any work left for the Public Service Commission?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—According to the information of the Government, there will be sufficient work and again the Public Service Commission may devote more time to matters relating to recruitment to gazetted posts and more particularly in the interests of speedy recruitment to various categories of non-gazetted posts throughout the State.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Are the Government aware that the Public Service Commission themselves have expressed the view that this work is not much and they can manage and in spite of it, Government have taken it away from their purview ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—It is the Government which has to judge. We know the delays occurring. We have come to the conclusion that they will have sufficient work.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—What is the percentage of recruitment of gazetted staff and the percentage of work left over to the Public Service Commission?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—That has not been worked out.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—May I know the compelling reasons for taking away this work from the P.S.C. ?

Mr. SPEAKER.—They have said it; it is because of the delay.

Sri C. J. MUCKANNAPPA.—Sir, before giving us an opportunity of discussing the P.S.C. Report, the Government have taken the decision. We want to know the compelling reasons to make the Government to take away this from the P.S.C. and was there any injustice done by the P.S.C.?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Sir, one is to avoid delay; second is to allow the P.S.C. to more efficiently recruit the other Government servants and third is, in order to make the candidates to apply in their own divisions.

Sri C. K. RAJAIAH SHETTY.—Is it not a fact that due to delay caused in presenting the Nagan Gowda report, many posts were held up?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—The Hon'ble Member is in confusion. It is not correct. Until Government passed the new order, the old order was in force.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA —Did Government consider expanding the Commission or increasing the number of Members in the Commission with a view to meet the alleged delay caused?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Government thought that it was not necessary to expand the P.S.C. but thought to withdraw the recruitment of class III from their purview.

Sri C. M. ARUMUGHAM.—Did Government write to the P.S.C. that there was too much delay in this regard and that they must expedite the recruitment, before they took this decision?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—After knowing very well that there was delay, they took a decision. It was not necessary for us to write to them.

Sri C. M. ARUMUGHAM.—In how many cases there was such delay and have Government got reasons for this from the P.S.C.?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Government thought that it was not necessary to take an explanation from the P.S.C.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Is it the view of the Government that as against the Statutory Body like the P.S.C. the ad hoc body that is to be set up in the several Divisions is going to work better?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—It is the opinion of the Government that these Committees will do in a better way.

Sri G. VENKATAI GOWDA.—Did Government consult the P.S.C. before taking this decision?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Government consulted them and they accepted partially.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Sir, what is meant by partially accepting ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—In some of the categories they agreed and in some categories, they did not agree. We thought to take up the whole thing.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—May I know those categories?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—I will give those details, if you want.

Sri G. N. PUTTANNA—Have Government appointed the committees and if so, whether they would place the list on the table of the House.

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Sir, Government have decided to appoint the committees not by names but by designation. I will keep that information on the table of the House.

Sri V. SRINIVASA SHETTY.—Sir, as far as I know, a number of candidates were interviewed for Sub-Inspectors' posts. What has happened of this interview and what is to happen to the remaining candidates ? Do Government want to interview them separately through their own committees ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Sir, this question will have to be examined legally. If we can accept the recommendations of the P.S.C. regarding the candidates interviews by them, we will accept ; otherwise, all the candidates who were interviewed will be given another opportunity.

Sri M. RAMAPPA.—Have these committees framed different set of rules or do they follow the rule of the P.S.C. ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—The rules that have been accepted now both by the P.S.C. and the Government.

Sri M. C. NARASIMHAN.—Since the members of the committees are not whole-time members, do you not consider that it will also lead to delay ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—Sir, there is not one committee ; there are various committees and it would be possible for them for interview and send recommendations quickly.

Sri G. B. SHANKAR RAO.—Will the Divisional Committees call for applications or will the applications that are now with the P.S.C. would be sent to the committees ?

Sri B. D. JATTI.—It will be legally examined.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Question time is over.
